

Media Kit For

Grown In

The cannabis industry newsletter

WHO WE ARE

Grown In is the most widely read cannabis business news publication home grown in the Midwest. Our 1,400 readers include trailblazing executives, investors, community organizers and all others transitioning to the steadily normalizing and medically essential cannabis industry. Currently, we publish through two weekly email newsletters and reprint our articles online at GrownIn.com.

WHAT WE OFFER

Visibility to our growing audience, which include MSOs based in and with footprints in Illinois, owner-operators, legislators, community activists and prospective talent looking for career expansion in cannabis-based industries.
